TEAM

2. Building a Team

Marty Miller

President, CEO

MARTY is a veteran educator, outdoor professional, and a leader of men. He is the founder and president of Blueprint for Men which provides men's ministry leadership for the Georgia-Cumberland Conference, the Southern Union and beyond. Through retreats, rallies, and small groups the Blueprint for Men network continues to impact a growing number of men across the country. Marty and his wife, Gale, are the proud parents of two adult children and three grandchildren. Life is good!

Gale Miller

Assistant to the President

GALE is a Spirit-filled woman and powerful prayer warrior, who provides this men's ministry with a woman's perspective. She also takes care of the ministry book-keeping and serves as assistant to the president... her husband Marty. Gale connects with people at a heart-level so much that during her career as NICU nurse she was known as the "baby whisperer". This spiritual gift enables her to provide spiritual counseling to women that leads to their freedom and transformation. Nana is loved and adored by her three granddaughters, two adult children, and countless friends. Life is good!

Tom Pyke

Chief Operations Officer

TOM is a veteran business operations manager, seasoned outdoorsman, and a leader of men. He has guided and supported Blueprint for Men since its inception serving as the ministry secretary and much more. Tom's greatest joy is to lead small groups where men experience a daily walk with God and become the men God designed them to be. He and his wife, Trina, have raised 5 boys to manhood and enjoy traveling from Montana to Kentucky visiting their grandkids. Life is good!

Grant Graves

Chief Communications Officer

GRANT is a veteran educator, gifted speaker, and author. His career path includes teaching from elementary through college and more recently as a corporate sales and marketing trainer. He loves working out, listening to books and podcasts, and spending time with his wife Riley and their daughter Libby. His dream is to one day hear Jesus say, “Well done, my good and faithful friend.”
